Pastor Kim's Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In the corner of my dining room sits a grandmother clock, brought from Germany by my grandmother who obtained it from family there and then passed it down to me. I grew up with this clock, fascinated by the deep tones of its chimes, echoing in the big chamber against the beautiful wood. I was so accustomed to the sound that at one point it sat in my bedroom, right next to my bed; and though people on the other side of telephone conversations would ask what all the noise was, not once did it disturb my sleep or routine.

Until it stopped.

After moving into my current house, the clock started to miss time: something was wrong. Although I had never had it serviced before, a repairman was called and serviced it; but it was no better. Then, one morning while I was upstairs, there was a huge crash. At first I could not find what had fallen, till looking in my beloved clock to see that a link in the chain had broken, releasing the weight to fall, breaking the bottom of the case.

One link, and the clock was damaged, never to be the same again.

Its funny about churches: no matter how large or small, people tend to sit in the same spot when they participate. A hole is left at that section of seating when a person is not there. At a ministry event, I watch the leader looking around, a head bobbing up to look over just to see, just to wait, if one more person is coming. A church is not an institution or a building: it is a group of people, united as a family through sharing the same heavenly Father, together in belief and ministry. Together each one of us holds us all together, each a link that allows the church as a whole to echo the sounds of God's love to those far away and those right up close. We get so used to the way things work over the years that the ministry becomes normative for us, hardly noticeable to us as they tick away in the background of our lives.

Until they stop.

Pastors can be called and with council members offer service, and it can be better: but it is the links that hold the ministries together. The links, the members, the brothers and sisters: you.

You. Big, little, old, young – you – are a necessary part to the ministry of God through Christ's United.

In this season of Lent, as we approach the resounding trumpets and voices of joy at Easter, take a little time to look at the condition of your faith and ministry. Take the time to service and nurture yourself through worship and prayer. Take the time to realize exactly how important you are to the ministry of God here and now. Because even though we may take it for granted, those who we served are damaged when the weight of ministries broken falls upon them.

Grab hold. Take the hand of those next to you, those others who stand ready to serve and grow, and be linked together by God's call to be His church. Together sound forth loud and strong, echoing so that generations past, present, and future can hear the beautiful chimes of God's ever present love.

Peace,
Pastor Kim

Church Council Highlights from December:

- A presentation was given by Keith & Dru Laudermitlch regarding permission for the youth groups to hold a bake sale to raise funds for "Bowl for Kids Sake". Permission was granted and the bake sale will be on April 14.
- Pastor Lengert will be on vacation from March 3 after worship to March 5.
- The new directory proof was returned to LifeTouch with minor changes.
- Upgrades to the sound system are on hold.
- The LCM submitted the list of dates for 2013 meetings and dinners.
- WELCA will begin making Easter candy.
- Dean will show the current waivers for church usage to the insurance company to see if changes should be made.
- A Day Camp was discussed and council asked for more information.

Welcome New Members!

With joyful celebration five new members were welcomed into the ministry of Christ's United since the last newsletter. Please take the time to welcome and meet Frank Mattis, Vivian Brown, Rachelle Johnson, Terry Whyne, and Brandy Schreiber. Watch for new members joining before next newsletter by affirmation of faith and baptism.

I would like to thank the Endowment Fund Committee of Christ's United Church for the generous check they have given us. It will be used toward our college education. Thank you again, William & Shale Waldick.

Endowment Committee, Thank you very much for awarding me one of the scholarships. It means a lot that such scholarships exist to help ease the financial burden of college students. The scholarship will be put to good use. Thank you again, it is greatly appreciated. Sincerely, Laura Brennan

Endowment Committee, I wanted to express my gratitude for giving me the opportunity to continue my education. It is with the scholarship that I will be able to purchase necessary items like textbooks and supplies that will be used this coming semester. Again, thank you. Sincerely, April Brennan

First Communion

All youth in 1st grade or older who do not yet share in Holy Communion are invited to First Communion Class on Saturday, 9 March 2013 from 9:00 AM - Noon. At least one parent/guardian is required to attend. The class will involve Bible games that help learn the meaning of Holy Communion, a video about the importance of Holy Communion, practice at the altar, and even making our own Communion bread. Please register for the class by calling the church office, 875-1591. Please contact Pastor

Kim with any questions. We will celebrate 1st Holy Communion on Palm Sunday, March 24, 2013.

Please invite your family to attend.

Sr. Youth Group

Last month after service, while Keith made dinner, Tyler taught us a new game in which Pastor had us stumped. We always say grace before dinner but sometimes the kids are shy, so Pastor taught us a new prayer. We enjoyed homemade meatballs, spaghetti and garlic bread. After cleaning up we played games like "how well do you know your adult leader?" "How well do your adult leaders know you?" and "Pat on the back". The kids learned fun facts about their advisers like "DruAnn has climbed to the top of a pyramid" and "Keith had an audience with Pope John Paul II". Keith and I learned things like one of the kids likes to cut the grass and one plays 6 sports. We had a good night enjoying good food and playing fun games.

The month of March will have us coloring eggs, performing a puppet play and help setting up for the Easter egg hunt. We will be working on the play, and the dates will be announced shortly. Parents, please contact Keith or Druann at youth@christsunited.org if you have any questions or suggestion for future events.

The kids have decided to help the kids of Schuylkill county by participating in Bowl for Kids Sake, April 21 @ 3:00pm. Last year we had two teams with a total of 7 kids and 2 adults. We did a great job of collecting donations and we had a bake sale in which we collected nearly $200 in 15 minutes which helped us to raise over $800 for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Schuylkill County. We will be having a bake sale April 14th right after service. Donations of any amount are always greatly appreciated, so if you would like to help and don't want to wait for the bake sale please see Keith, DruAnn or Jeanmarie.

Junior Youth Group

HEY Junior Youth, yes you the young members of Christ's United, between the ages of 6 - 10; we want you to join us this year for Bowl for Kids Sake. Talk to your parents and have them see Jeanmarie and sign up on the bulletin board if you want to join us for a day of fun, food and charity!!!!

The Jr Youth had a pizza/movie party on January 26th...sadly only 2 Youth members showed up but, we had fun coloring pictures that we hung up in the fellowship hall (now moved to one of the classrooms), making our own pizzas and, watching an animated movie about the "Miracles of Jesus". Hopefully future events will have more participation.

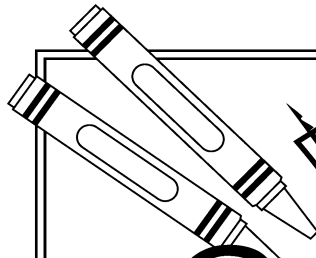

Parents please watch the newsletters, church bulletins, the church website & Facebook for upcoming events. Jeanmarie can be contacted at: jbp86@verizon.net

Bear Creek Day Camp

Christ's United is considering hosting Bear Creek's week long Day Camp in June. Campers would have a full day of activities at Christ's United including Bible lessons, songs, sports, and art projects Monday through Friday led by counselors from Bear Creek. Cost would be $60 per camper for the week, with a discount for families with more than one camper. In order to host the camp, 40 campers must be registered. If you are interested, please immediately contact the church office or a member of the Day Camp Task Force: Hannah Sterling, Deb Berner, or Sally Tice.

500,000 QUILTS FOR LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF CHALLENGE

LWR has been distributing quilts around the world for many years. In 2012, they shared 412,710 quilts with needy people. The quilts are used as beds and/or covers, shawls, baby carriers, sunshades, and ground cover for market goods. The need continues so LWR has challenged the United States Lutherans to donate 500,000 in 2013.

Our cluster hopes to create several tied/knotted quilts and your help and donations are needed.

New or used but clean materials needed for the project are:

Bed sheets, blankets, mattress pads, pillow cases, quilts (not knitted or crocheted),

fabric yards or pieces (cottons, corduroy, polyester knits, fleece),
or draperies (no fiberglass content).

Crocheting thread for knotting.

Please look around your homes or second hand shops for any of these materials and place them in the box in the social hall next to the walk-in closet. Assembly of quilts will begin in April.

There is a Women of ELCA Spiritual Growth Retreat on March 16th (snow date March 23rd) at Hope Lutheran Church, Cherryville. $20 registration includes lunch. Please see Donna Wallace for more information.

Ladies Night Out

Our next adventure is scheduled for Sunday March 10th! Due to the unpredictable weather, we will remain on our winter schedule and leave from the church at 3:30 pm. What is not unpredictable is the great time we will have as we gather together! Our proposed destination is Old Forge Brewing Company in Danville. For more information, check out Facebook or the bulletin board, or speak with Pastor Kim.

Sour Cream Apple Pie

A recipe from... Beryl Stitzer

5-6 Apples peeled (granny smith, macintosh)
1/2 pint sour cream
2/3 cup sugar
1 Tbsp. white vinegar
2 Tbsp. flour

Combine ingredients and pour over apples in unbaked crust. Dot with butter and sprinkle with cinnamon.
Bake at 375 until apples are tender.

Also good with peaches in place of apples.

Lent: Deepening our Faith

Daily: Members of Christ's United have written reflections on daily Bible readings to lead us along the journey of Lent. These daily devotionals are available on the tables in the hallway or in the church office. Please consider not only adding to your own devotion, but sharing a devotional booklet with a friend.

Wednesdays: We gather each Wednesday at 6:00 for a supper of soups and bread while we learn about Social Ministry's World Hunger programs. Having fed our bodies we then feed our souls with worship at 7:00 pm. The Choir will lead us in Holden Evening Prayer while our Bible readings and reflections remember Christ's words from the cross.

Seder: In just two years it has become a requested tradition of Christ's United to share in the Passover Meal, the Seder, on the Wednesday of Holy Week (27 March). According to the gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke, Passover is the celebration Jesus shared with His disciples prior to the crucifixion. Please watch the bulletin board to sign up.

The Three Days: Maundy Thursday begins the Tridium, a service which begins with Footwashing, Holy Communion, and the Stripping of the Altar. The service continues as we gather on Good Friday before an altar empty of decoration and the Procession and Adoration of the Cross. We leave in silence and gather again in the darkness, only to be filled with the light of the resurrection and Festive Holy Communion on Easter Dawn.

Easter Services: Services begin at 6:30 a.m. with the prophecies and new flame followed by an Easter Breakfast prepared by the Lutheran Church Men. A Festive Service of Holy Communion begins at 9:30 a.m. with anthems by the Choir and all the celebration we can offer as we praise the Risen Lord. Bring a friend!

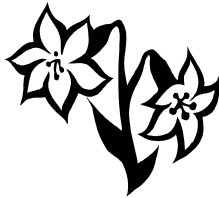

EASTER FLOWERS

If you would like to order flowers to place in the church for Easter Sunday, please use the attached form or sign up on the bulletin board in the Narthex.

You can choose from the following varieties. (For the Hyacinths please specify what color you would like: white, pink, or blue/lilac).
