GORDON — The Rev. Peggy Sue Pfeffer, a Wilkes-Barre area native, was installed as the new associate pastor of Christ's United Lutheran Church, during services held at Saint Paul Chapel, on Sunday, Sept. 11 at 4 p.m.

A graduate of the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia in May and ordained in June by the Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church in America, Pastor Pfeffer has been active in the area of youth ministry for the Synod.

She served as a co-ordinator for youth activities in the Wilkes-Barre area, as well as working for the Lutheran Camp in Bear Creek. Pastor Pfeffer earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Roanoke College, Salem Virginia. She began her ministry at Christ's United Lutheran Church in July.

Rev. Dr. Harold S. Weiss, Bishop of Northeastern Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church conducted the service.
