Pastor Kim's Message

Brothers and Sisters,
*Jolly old St. Nicholas, Lean your ear this way!
Don't you tell a single soul, What I'm going to say;
Christmas Eve is coming soon, Now, you dear old man,
Whisper what you'll bring to me: Tell me if you can.*

You don't have to be too young to have this song fill your head this month. Christmas is coming. Gifts are being wrapped. Dinners are being planned. And everyone – yes everyone – is a little curious about what they may get...

That new big screen TV.

A necklace.

A transformerator.

Whether it be anything from a car to a pony, everyone has something they want on their mind.

*When the clock is striking twelve, When I'm fast asleep,
Down the chimney broad and black, With your pack you'll creep.
All the stockings you will find Hanging in a row;
Mine will be the shortest one, You'll be sure to know.
Johnny wants a pair of skates, Susie wants a sled
Nellie wants a picture book, yellow, blue and red*

There is a desire within us that causes a building excitement and anticipation, fueled by carols and decorations and dancing sugar plums. Even if Santa is intimately known to us we greet Christmas morning with more of a rush than exhaustion, scanning boxes and bags for the gift that is specially and specifically ours.

As I write this article, Christmas is not the only event looming on the horizon. Recent terrorist attacks in Paris have brought the world to the brink of world war once again, as nations seek to bank together against a hidden enemy.

Separation between police and communities continues to grow, leaving both unsafe, unprotected, as more allegations of racism, unlawful use of force, and abuse of power are brought forward.

Although more households have both adults working, family income continues to decline, causing more and more families to need assistance such as food pantries to function.

Almost twice as many children are diagnosed with developmental disorders today as were identified ten years ago.

*Now I think I'll leave to you what to give the rest
Choose for me dear Santa Claus, what you think is best.*

Gifts of clothing, jewelry and toys may give a momentary thrill, but they are not going to give us the relief we need this Christmas. Look past the bows and ribbons to see the gift we may not want – but need - a gift that is specifically and specially ours. The gift of Jesus Christ.

For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given;
and the government shall be upon his shoulder,
and his name shall be called
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6

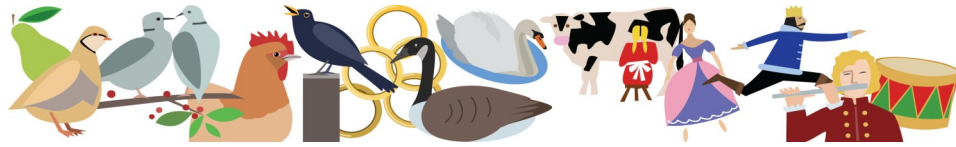

“Peace I leave with you. My peace I give you. I give to you not as the world gives.” John 14:27

May the gift of peace that is the truth of Christmas be yours, this year and always.

Peace,

Pastor Kim

Church Council Highlights from November:

- An idea is floating to pursue Wednesday evening programming and educational opportunities. Because the hardest problem in the evening is meals, we might be able to form a partnership with the Vo-tech Culinary Program. Culinary students could make dinner on Wednesday nights using our commercial kitchen, starting sometime after Lent.
- Pastor Kim is now a member of the Gordon Fire Company and serves as Chaplain, so she will be attending the meetings.
- Four additional members of the Youth Group attended the Council meeting so that they would have insight into how the meeting is run. Council is looking for a new youth representative to serve a 1-year term. The Youth Group needs to elect a person and provide Council with the elected results.
- 2) Steven's Youth Report: Trunk or Treat was a great turnout with approximately 206 children attending and $265 raised for the youth groups. Thrivent provided $250 grant money. According to John Towey, people attending the event wanted to know when our services were held. Erik is working on compiling names and addresses in order to send them Youth Ministry brochures.
- John Denchak made a motion that no scholarship should be sent out in the mail and given to no one but the recipient on either the Saturday or Sunday service. The motion was seconded by Helen Wolfgang with all in agreement. Recipients will receive a letter in the mail.

Monday, December 7

Beginning at 9:00 a.m., come out and help decorate the church for the Advent & Christmas seasons.

YOUTH Christmas ACTIVITIES

SENIOR YOUTH

Please join us for cookie baking at 2pm on December 12th. We will then attend the 5pm service. After the service we will car pool with the choir to go Christmas caroling to the shut-ins.

Remember that candy commercial declaring, “Big things come in small packages”? The prophet’s message to tiny Bethlehem is similar: “Though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel” (Micah 5:2, NIV).

We’ve all felt too small for a certain role: too little to play with the big kids ... too skinny to make the football team ... short on the skills needed for a choice assignment. Perhaps we fear our gift of money is too little to make a difference, or the small amount of time we can volunteer isn’t even worth it.

But God brings big things out of “small packages.” From a newborn baby – merely six to eight pounds of helplessness – God brought salvation for the whole world. Rest assured, he’ll do big things through you, too.

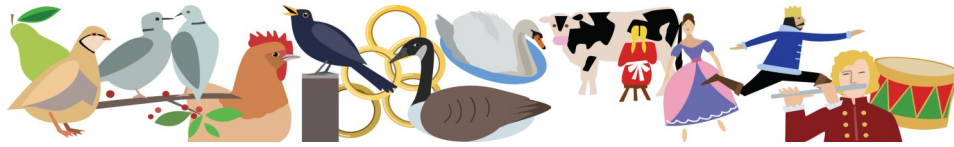

The star of Christmas

When Jesus was born, a star led the wise men to him.

Directions: Place the words in order, by their numbers, on the blanks below to complete Matthew 2:10, NIV.

 _____,
 _____.”
 _____: _____, NIV

Answer: “When they saw the star, they were overjoyed.” Matthew 2:10, NIV

The American Red Cross encourages eligible blood donors to give something that means something during the holiday season.

- Give something that means something by donating blood this holiday season.
- Blood donations often decline during the winter due to holiday festivities, inclement weather and seasonal illnesses, like the flu.
- Patients don't get a holiday from needing blood or platelets. The need for donors is constant.
- Blood donors of all types, especially those with types AB, O negative, B negative and A negative, are needed to ensure blood is available whenever and wherever needed.
- Type AB donors have the universal plasma type, which can be given to patients of all blood types. There is a constant, often critical, need for type AB plasma.
- Type O negative is the universal blood type and can be transfused to patients with any blood type.
- Types A and B negative can be transfused to Rh-positive or negative patients.
- Eligible donors with type O negative, B negative or A negative blood are encouraged to give double red cells.

Be sure to complete a RapidPass prior to your next blood donation to save time at the blood drive. RapidPass lets donors complete the pre-donation reading and health history questionnaire online, on the day of donation, from the convenience of a computer at home or work.
