Pastor Kim's Message

The Pastor's Part:

Turkey, ham, stuffing and cranberries. Travelling over hill and over dale. The cold and darkness as transition into the light and sound of worship. Family and friends, together around the table. Presents strewn throughout the living room.

This is the tradition of Christmas. It is the reason that music and elves occupy every corner of our lives during December, the reason that stores have long lines, the reason that travel plans are being made, the reason grocery stores have turkeys stacked to the ceiling. It is the reason that people get stressed, tempers get short, depression gets overpowering, and families' debt increases. But is it the reason for Christmas?

In the darkness of the night, when the world was asleep and only the outcast stared into the darkness, the heavens opened with praise and Its light shined above a stable, where the God of the universe, Jesus, the Christ, was born for the salvation of the world.

No turkeys, no hams, no ribbons or bows, no boxes, no paper, not even a single cranberry rolling around. Christmas is the tradition of presence, not presents. It is the tradition of gathering with family and friends to celebrate the gift we have in Jesus Christ, God born among us, to be with us so that we can be with Him.

Am I suggesting that you give no gift this Christmas? No, quite the contrary. I am suggesting exactly the opposite. I am asking you to give the most precious gift you have: your faith in Jesus Christ.

Christ's United Lutheran Church

Mission Statement

We the members of Christ's United Lutheran Church, Ashland, desiring to be blessed together with Word and Sacrament and to become more perfectly the Body of Christ in our world, do hereby commit ourselves to a mission which includes a creative re-examination of our worship life; a quality educational program for all ages; intentional witnessing; a serving spirit; and an integrated support system which will undergird our program and the maintenance of our facilities as it encourages improved stewardship.

As family and friends gather, remind them why by telling the story of Jesus' birth. Tell them how Jesus changed the world – changed you – and the life He offers them. Join together in worship not because it is what you do on Christmas, but because you want to celebrate what means so much to you with those who mean so much to you. Together feast on the presence of God in the gifts of His life.

And together, share that presence with others. Consider trading a tie that will only be worn once for a meal through Christ's Cupboard that will feed a family for a week. Consider substituting a toy that will be played with for a month with a gift to the Endowment Fund that will help provide an education that will last a lifetime. Consider setting aside the time you could be shopping for a gift in a store to be used taking a child to worship for a year.

This Christmas, celebrate the reason, and continue the tradition that was started so long ago...

Peace,
Pastor Kim

TO THE MEMBERS OF CHRIST'S UNITED:

It is again that time of year when we prepare our church for the coming Christmas season. Your help in these projects, if your schedule allows, will be greatly appreciated.

27 November (Sunday):

Following the 9:30 a.m. service the three Christmas trees need to be brought into the church and put in their stands. Please wear your jeans to church if you can assist and thank you in advance.

28 November (Monday):

On this day we will trim the trees and hang the lighted holly. We will start at 9:00 a.m. and with the help of 10 - 12 people we usually finish in 3 to 4 hours – around lunch or shortly after.

We usually have a lot of fun working on the project and anticipating how beautiful it will look when finished. If you have a few hours to spare, please come join us, your help will be very much appreciated.

Jack Houser,
Coordinator

By knowing what you are willing to commit financially, we are able to better plan for the future. Please consider setting up a recurring giving plan. Automating your financial commitments means your contributions will be received on a steady, uninterrupted basis.

To set up a recurring giving schedule, visit us online at www.christsunited.org, locate the Online Giving button and set up your recurring giving schedule. The first time you give, you will select a password that will enable you to log in at any time and make changes to your giving or view your complete online giving history.
