Pastor Kim's Message

Brothers and Sisters,

Shhh. I snuck away. As I write this article, I am sitting near my hotel room window, looking at the lights dance off the waters of Seneca Lake, while sailboats rock gently in their moorings. It was a quick side journey before the travels of Summer, as retreats and meetings in towns across Pennsylvania seem to fill every week.

The journey has been fun and relaxing, filled with beautiful views of mountains and lakes as I twisted around curves and bends in the road. The drive gave much time for reflection, allowing me to think about my journey through life. Few could have imagined the journey from the mountains of my youth to those of Schuylkill County.

But could any of us have done the same? From our beginnings we could never have imagined the journey life laid before us, what we would experience, what we would see, what, we would survive...

There have been so many differences and changes we may wonder if we are even on the same road that we started on: nothing looks familiar, nothing feels the same. We feel lost, and alone. But we're not.

In Matthew chapter 28 verse 20, Jesus said: "And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age." Jesus is with us every step of our journey through life, whether it be along the heights of beautiful mountains or in the darkness of the tragedies valleys.

This understanding is the basis for Journey, our recently re-christened Sunday morning education program at Christ's United. It is an opportunity to be strengthened for our life journey - wherever it may lead - knowing that God is with us.

Our Journey will take some turns for the Summer as we also take some turns from our normal routines for get-aways to the mountains, the beach, relatives, and even the lake. We go with the understanding that soon we will be together again, full of stories of our adventures and the miracles of them, for no matter where we went we never travelled alone.

And there is no need to be quiet. We all need to know that our journey is never solo. We all need to hear how God led us, how God spoke to us, and how no matter where we went, we where never, ever, alone. We need to hear that. The world needs to hear that. Won't you share your Journey with us?

Blessings on your journey this Summer. Come home often to share your tales and be strengthened to go out again.

Peace,
Pastor Kim

Ministry of the Month

Since worship is the central focus of the church, the group which is most responsible for the worship life of any congregation is the worship and music committee. This committee's primary concern is with the spiritual life and order of worship. The arts, architecture, music, festivals, choir, etc. come under its domain. Essentially, the worship and music committee is the guiding force which directs the worship life of the congregation. It is through this committee that the Pastor works to develop and guide the music program. The membership of the committee usually includes persons with musical judgment who can guide the program and also includes persons who assist in other ways—lectors, ushers, greeters, and those responsible for paraments and candles. The committee should also include those who sit in the pew each Sunday as we are all involved in worship and guided by the Holy Spirit!

Dear Members of CULC,
I wish to express my heartfelt thank you for the cards and kind expressions of sympathy upon the death of my friend Bob Babcock.

It is nice to have such wonderful friends.
Nellie Schlorff

Members of Christ's United,

Thank you so much for everything we were given, all the prayers for us and all the love we received from your whole church family.

Relationship Rehab

The theme of the God's story is relationship: with God, with each other, and with creation. But our relationship has been broken, and there are a lot of things in our world today that seek to pull us even further apart.

So to help us rehabilitate and repair our relationships, the Stewardship Ministry Team is putting out a challenge to Christ's United: Two Hour Turn Off. Once per week, turn off all electronic devices (computers, cell phones, telephones, televisions, etc.) and do something together as a family or with friends. A list of possible activities (like talking, playing a game, or taking a walk) is posted on the bulletin board. There is also a place for you to sign up and make the pledge! The Stewardship Ministry Team will be collecting stories of participants to share how the Two Hour Turn Off changed their relationships. Sign up today!

Staying Fed

“How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!” (Psalm 119:103, NRSV).

Recently I was confronted with this question: If you fed yourself with food the way you feed yourself with God’s Word, would you still be alive? It gave me pause.

Do I eat enough spiritually? – feast regularly enough on Scripture to keep up my energy and the health of my soul? Do I eat nutritiously? – take in a balanced meal of law and gospel, comfort and commandments, prophecy and promise? Do I pass up spiritual junk food? – set aside empty calories that lead to disease, in order to hunger for what truly gives life? Do I drink enough Living Water to avoid faith dehydration? And once in a while, do I splurge on dessert? – savor the sweetness and joy of belonging at God’s table?

What abundance God sets before us. May we never skip a “meal”!

–Heidi Mann

Of all the characters in the Bible, perhaps Joseph is the best parallel to the character of Jesus. During a time of an "eye-for-an-eye and tooth-for-a-tooth" mentality, Joseph's story of forgiveness and integrity has made this Bible story a timeless truth, inspiring generations of men and women to walk upright in the midst of great temptation.

Sight & Sound's depiction of this classic story magnifies the many qualities that make Joseph appeal to people of all ages.

Experience a cast of 45 professional adult and child actors and dozens of live animals on the stage and in the aisles. Witness several amazing dream sequences, including Joseph in his colorful coat "flying" above the audience. Sight & Sound's larger-than-life staging features scenes like the spectacular Egyptian palace, which spans 300 feet and wraps around three sides of the audience. 20 original songs add to the excitement, helping Sight & Sound live up to its motto: "Where the Bible comes to life!®"
