Mission Statement

We the members of Christ's United Lutheran Church, Ashland, desiring to be blessed together with Word and Sacrament and to become more perfectly the Body of Christ in our world, do hereby commit ourselves to a mission which includes a creative re-examination of our worship life; a quality educational program for all ages; intentional witnessing; a serving spirit; and an integrated support system which will undergird our program and the maintenance of our facilities as it encourages improved stewardship.

Message from Designated Pastor Mindy...

Lent is not a time to beat yourself up!

It is a time to take stock, to be honest, to make changes when necessary. It is a time to grow in grace, and the church has traditionally endorsed these 3 Lenten practices.

PRAYER: It can get kind of rote, can't it? Learn a new table grace and use it for the season. Or pray spontaneously. Write your prayers, draw your prayers, dance your prayers! If you usually pray alone, find a prayer buddy. Look up the Ecumenical Prayer Cycle online, and you can pray your way around the world every year. I could go on, and if you reach out to me we'll find more meaningful ways for you to converse with the source of all good.

FASTING. Again, this is not about suffering. If there's something you shouldn't be ingesting, stop...and get support if you need it. Eating too much or in a way that hurts you? Consider how fearfully and wonderfully made you are, and treat the body you were given with love. Otherwise—do you eat thoughtlessly? Learn where your food comes from. Pray for those involved in the process of getting it to you. If you find injustices in the food chain, do your part to redress them.

WORKS OF MERCY: There is literally no end of possibilities here: just pay attention to where God is leading you. Gifts of money are nice when you have it: gifts of time and/or presence are infinitely precious. You might be led to a helpful new hobby, you might have your life turned around. Pay attention to nudges from God!

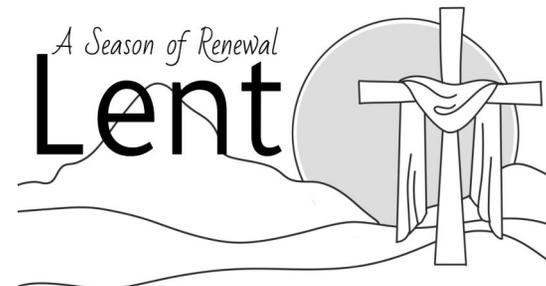

And again, if you want to talk about any of this, please do not hesitate to be in touch.

CROSS OF ASHES — On Ash Wednesday, as Lent begins, worshipers' foreheads are often marked with ashes in the sign of the cross. The ashes traditionally come from burning palm branches from the previous Palm Sunday. In the Old Testament, ashes were a sign of mourning and repentance. Today, some worshipers wipe off the ashes before leaving church, to symbolize being cleansed from sin by Jesus' death; others wear the ashes the rest of the day, carrying the cross of Christ into the world. Reciting Genesis 3:19 often accompanies the placement of ashes: "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."

Member's Message by John Towey

A TOUCH ON YOUR SHOULDER

I have been a member of Christ's United Lutheran Church for about 11 years now. In 2011, I was suffering spiritually. I had three very close family members pass away within a very short time. They all lived in my home and were cared for by my wife and me for many years. They all received religious funerals in a church as well as services at their grave sites. I was saddened that God let this happen to these beloved family members and it hurt so much. What hurt more, was the fact that I never received any form of comfort from the church I attended and supported, or any of its members or leaders. I felt the need to search for a more caring church where I could regain my trust and belief in God, and a church family that would support me in times of suffering and trials. We visited several churches of different denominations in order to try to find the right fit. I remember entering the narthex at CULC for the first time and being somewhat confused. There was no holy water to bless yourself, no fancy statues on the altar, no tabernacle on the altar where the holy eucharist was stored, no kneelers in the pews, and people were all standing around talking with each other. I knew no one. I had no idea where to sit or what to do. I felt like an outsider. Then, I felt a hand gently touch my shoulder and heard a warm, friendly, calming voice welcoming me to the church service. It was Jim Gruber. He introduced himself, showed me where to sign the guest book and told me I could sit anywhere I choose. We met again after the church service in the social hall. We talked, and he introduced us to several other friendly, welcoming church members. Some of these people (Beth Andrews, Darlene Stank, Melanie Bendinsky, Gail Marquardt, Terry Shilling) we had known from prior times. It felt like family. Each time we returned and attended a service, it was the same, and it has continued for years.

I was invited to attend Adult Bible studies lead by Eric Tice. I had never spent a lot of time reading the bible with my other church membership. What he was teaching in his class made sense to the other Bible readers but was often confusing to me at times. I asked a lot of questions that were always answered, but I wish I knew more about the Bible. One Sunday morning before the service had started, I received another touch on the shoulder. This time it was from Kay Berner. She asked me if I had a Study Bible. I responded no. She said, you do now. I have an extra one at home that I will give to you. Once again, a friendly touch on the shoulder and a welcoming gesture helped me along in my search for spiritual guidance and understanding.

A prayer for Lent

Dear Christ, hasten to me. Release me from my sins. Free my arms from the chains of evil, that I may embrace you. Lift the scales of ignorance from my eyes that I may see you. Why do you delay? What are you waiting for? You are my God and my Lord, you are my refuge and strength, you are my glory and my hope. In you I put my trust. Dear Christ, hasten to me.

HEART strings

Make this heartfelt craft as a decoration or gift.

What you need:

- Yarn
- Scissors
- Parchment paper
- Baking sheet
- Heart-shaped cookie cutters
- ¼ cup cornstarch
- ½ cup water
- Adult help

What you do:

1. Cut yarn into 12-inch pieces.
2. Place cookie cutters atop a baking sheet lined with parchment paper.
3. Combine cornstarch and water in a saucepan. Heat mixture over medium heat, stirring until thick and smooth. Remove from heat and cool to form a "glue."
4. Dip each piece of yarn into the mixture to coat completely. Squeeze off any excess.
5. Place yarn in the cookie cutters, allowing pieces to cross and loop within the heart. Add more until the cookie cutter is filled and the yarn looks like a heart.
6. Remove cookie cutters and bake the sheet for two hours at 150°F, or until hearts are dry and hard.

In my time at Christ's United I have enjoyed the many opportunities that are available to help other people. I have helped with Vacation Bible School, the Easter Egg Hunt, Trunk or Treat, the Live Nativity, the Food Pantry. I have served on Church Council, helped by being a Pastor's Assistant, Lector, Communion Assistant, and Lay Pastor, Eucharistic Minister, and member of the Men's Group. These opportunities helped me grow spiritually and brought me great joy and happiness by not only being a member of the church, but by becoming an active member and contributing my time and talents where they were needed. This all may never have happened without that first touch on my shoulder and someone I never met welcoming me as a friend when I first entered the church.

We can all learn from my journey that helped me regain my spiritual strength by becoming an active member here at CULC. A small soft touch on the shoulder can go a long way. Try becoming more involved. It will certainly help you grow in your spiritual journey through life as it did me.

Your friend in Christ,
John Towey

PRAYER CHAIN

Each day members of Christ’s United bow their heads and lift their hearts in prayer for the ministries of this congregation and people in need.

A copy of the Prayer List is available at worship services each Sunday. You also have an email sent to you each week with a list of those in need of your prayers. A phone chain notifies you of immediate needs. If there is an immediate need of prayer, please call the church office. This month we pray for:

The Berger Family - Nelson H, Angie, Nathan & Nelson R.

The Pennypacker Family - Robert & Rose

The Werner Family - Erin, Kaitlyn & Kayla

Invaluable!

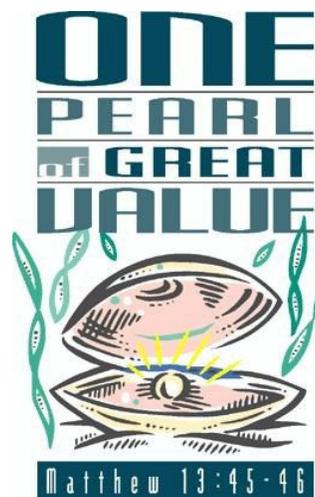

“The kingdom of heaven,” said Jesus, “is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it” (Matthew 13:45-46, NRSV).

In 2021, the Good News Network reported that a crab fisherman in Thailand stumbled upon a valuable Melo pearl while cutting up a snail for lunch. In wonder, he brought it to his brother to verify the discovery. “My family had been fishing for generations,” said Prasarnphon Phunwan, “but I believe our fate is about to change because of my lunch.” Several months prior, another fisherman had been offered $351,000 for a similar pearl.

Likewise, God’s priceless love immeasurably alters our eternal fate. If we fully comprehended the value of that love, we’d give up everything to obtain it. But the greater wonder is that we don’t have to buy it. God gives it to us as a gift! Whether we seemed to encounter Jesus by chance or someone joyfully shared the Gospel with us, our Savior is the merchant who “sold all that he had” — even his life. So priceless is salvation! So valuable are we!

ASH WEDNESDAY

Remember....

That you are dust, and to dust you shall return.

Such are the words of blessing offered on Ash
Wednesday, as we remember our humanity and God's immortal love, shown to us in Jesus Christ.

It is a time of somberness in recognition of the love so strong that death could not break its grasp on us. Join us for Worship with Holy Communion and the imposition of ashes on Wednesday,
February 14 at 7:00 P.M.

MID-WEEK LENTEN SERVICES

Lent is a season when we take a look at our lives in view of God's mercy toward us in the sacrifice of his Son for us on the cross. We, in turn, are called by God, especially during this time of repentance and reflection, to be living sacrifices for him, displaying our devotion to him in word and deed. Jesus helps us to see the richness of God's mercy in his life, death and resurrection. Join us each Wednesday in Lent for our worship services using Holden Evening Prayer and as we explore the Lenten series "In View of God's Mercy" by theology professor David Peter. We will focus our eyes of faith on the meaning behind
God's mercy made manifest in Christ.

Arts Sunday

On January 7th we held CULC's first Arts Sunday, asking anyone who does crafts to bring something for our display. Our theme was stars.

Here are pictures of the creative items brought in by our talented members.

Serving Our Community of Faith in February:

SUNDAY FEBRUARY 11

In 1990, Souper Bowl of Caring began with a simple prayer from a single youth group:

“Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us be mindful of those without a bowl of soup to eat.”

Since then, more than $170 million has been generated for local charities across the country through Souper Bowl of Caring. It has become a powerful movement that transforms the time around the Big Game into the nation's largest celebration of giving and caring for those in need.

Through this mission, people learn they can make a positive difference in the world as they collect food, raise money and serve at hunger-relief charities and show caring and compassion in local communities across the country.

Share in God's love for our neighbors in need and give generously on Souper Bowl Sunday - Feb. 11. All of the donations collected will go directly to our Souper Bowl of Caring Charity of Choice: Christ's Cupboard Food Pantry

Pastor Mindy's Media Moment

This one is just for fun! (Well, and Christian education...) Search Lent Madness—they're on Facebook, also.

It's a takeoff on March Madness, but the brackets are full of not teams, but saints! During the first round, you are presented each day with biographies of two Saints (individuals who are on the calendar of commemorations of some church body—slightly heavy on Episcopalians, because that's who runs this). In the next round, you learn more about the “winners” and so on through the elite eight and the faithful four and finally to the Golden Halo.

I know it sounds strange. Trust me in this one. You'll laugh a lot, learn a fair bit of Christian history, and be inspired. Not a bad deal for free.

SOCIAL MINISTRY
