Mission Statement

We the members of Christ's United Lutheran Church, Ashland, desiring to be blessed together with Word and Sacrament and to become more perfectly the Body of Christ in our world, do hereby commit ourselves to a mission which includes a creative re-examination of our worship life; a quality educational program for all ages; intentional witnessing; a serving spirit; and an integrated support system which will undergird our program and the maintenance of our facilities as it encourages improved stewardship.

Message from Designated Pastor Mindy...

This year the Feast of St. Michael and All Angels falls on the last Sunday in September. Who knows what sort of glimpse you might see during worship.

One of my favorite angel stories is about an Orthodox priest who was blessed (and surprised!) one Sunday when it was granted to him to see the angels in the chancel as he celebrated The Lord's Supper. There were so many that he had to keep pushing them aside to do what he was doing - causing much perplexity to those present who did not see them!

But angels are full of surprises. They greet women at the tomb to announce the resurrection - but they also stood at the gate of the Garden of Eden to repel any attempts by humans to reenter after the Fall. They sang to shepherds - and they stood in front of Balaam's donkey to keep him from proceeding (look it up, it's a great story). Get out your concordance and look up "angels" sometime. So many stories and so strange!

So, perhaps the angels exist to keep our sense of mystery in tact. That is a good thing.

But try to tame them at you own risk. And please stay away from the "heaven needed another angel" theory. Heaven has plenty of angels, and scripture is clear that humans are humans, and angels are angels, and you don't change orders of being just because you die.

My second favorite non-Biblical angel story is about a member of one of my previous congregations who was blessed with a really special voice. As she aged, she started talking about how she was looking forward to dying and being an angel and singing forever. I gently but firmly gave her the word and handed her a list of relevant scripture. She studied them, as I knew she would, and did more research besides. The next Sunday, she told me, "Its OK Pastor, I know now that I won't turn into an angels. But I talked to God, and He told me he'd let me sing with them."

Sing on, sisters and brothers! Join with the angels, and use the gifts you've been given.

Christian symbol

STEEPLE — Steeples are a remnant of Gothic church architecture of the Middle Ages, marked by high open spaces and pointed arches that direct attention heavenward. Nowadays a steeple atop a church small or large serves the same function. Typically topped with a cross, it designates a Christian house of worship. Steeples sometimes double as bell towers, sending out a call to worship high above the surrounding land.

Church Council Highlights From August

- A Christian Education meeting will be scheduled soon with the hope to start Sunday School in October.
- The Annual Church Picnic is scheduled for 8/25 with entertainment to be provided by Nick Chikotis.
- WELCA held their annual picnic and will be giving a temple talk about everything WELCA does.
- Highway cleanup is scheduled for 9/28/24. The rain date is 10/5/24. Meet at the church at 8 am.

September Council Contact of the month is Janet Towey.

The Council Contact of the Month is the “on call” member of council, the person to contact if you have any concerns (other than pastoral concerns), or need access to the building. If you need to contact Janet, she can be reached at 570-205-3420.

Could you become a Licensed Lay Minister?

Have you ever asked yourself “What is God calling me to do right now in my life? How can I best serve God and my neighbor? What gifts do I have that I am not using?” If so, becoming a Licensed Lay Minister (LLM) could be the answer to these profound discerning questions. The church has always needed and benefited from lay leaders and the variety of gifts they bring to the church community.

God calls each and every one of us to use our particular set of skills and talents to serve our church community through loving service and by sharing the Good News we have in the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

Licensed Lay Ministers will be licensed by our Synod Bishop to perform certain duties within specific congregations or 6261 ministry communities. Duties may include: leading worship and preaching, leading Bible studies, visiting hospitals, the homebound, and others who request a visit. Also, potential for receiving authorization to perform Sacraments (holy communion, baptisms, funerals, and marriage ceremonies) in special circumstances.

If you would like to learn about becoming a Licensed Lay Minister, go to nepasynod.org and select Licensed Lay Ministry tab to learn more details. There is a LLM Handbook at Quik Links. You can also email Pr. Jira Albers, the LLM Director at llm@nepasynod.org (lower case LLM) with any questions you might have.

Member's Musings by Larry Wolfgang

I seem to be in a rut! Every time I write a note for the newsletter, we seem to be in a seasonal transition. I do enjoy every season, and look forward to each change. As I write this, in late August, the last few days the weather has seemed a bit like fall, although I am not really ready for summer to be over yet.

The new school year is about to start, and that has me thinking about the “classic” beginning of the year assignment, at least from Elementary School teachers: “What I did over the summer!” This year has been much more active and fun for Jean and me than last year was! We enjoyed several camping trips and had opportunities to enjoy God’s beautiful handiwork! Bike rides through the parks, cooking over an open fire, even just sitting in our camper listening to the rain pounding of the roof! What a wonderful world we live in!

We enjoyed working in our garden, and growing a lot of delicious food! The tomatoes are ripening fast, and Jean has been making stewed tomatoes, sauce, and ketchup. I love fresh tomatoes from the garden, so I have been getting my fill. We have been sharing cherry tomatoes with friends who enjoy those little gems!

Some of our produce seemed to have come in much earlier than usual this year. Perhaps it was the hot weather, and the fact that Jean was watering nearly every day. We had heads of cauliflower in late June/early July this year. Red beets were ready to be picked in the same time frame, and they were so delicious! We had lettuce, spinach, radishes and other early crops as well. Our blueberry bushes seemed to produce a good crop, and we have berries in the freezer for use over the winter. Of course a couple of zucchini plants were supplying a great crop. There are still blossoms, so there may be more to come! God has provided abundantly, and we have been enjoying that bounty, as well as sharing with friends and neighbors.

Our neighbor has a fall Rambo apple tree, and he invited Jean to pick all the apples she wants. It is another great year for those apples. She has canned apple sauce and apple butter! She promised an apple pie, but I am still waiting for that! The one disappointment this year is that I did not get a single pear off my Pappy Wagner’s grafted apple/pear tree. They are usually delicious, but this year the squirrels were eating them in the tree, and then the deer cleaned up any that fell. Maybe next year! There is more produce to come. I see a stalk or two of brussels sprouts in the garden. The grapes are starting to get ripe! Dark blue, purple, and white varieties, all from vines my Pappy had growing 60 years ago or more!

The Bible has many passages about abundant crops and blessings from God. In Psalm 65, we read:

“You visit the Earth and water it, you greatly enrich it; you provide the people with grain, for so you have prepared it.... You crown the year with your bounty; your wagon tracks overflow with richness.”

It is good to give thanks to the Lord. We sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night. For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy!

I pray that your summer has been filled with abundant blessings!

Yours in Christ,
Larry Wolfgang

PRAYER CHAIN

Each day members of Christ’s United bow their heads and lift their hearts in prayer for the ministries of this congregation and people in need.

A copy of the Prayer List is available at worship services each Sunday. You also have an email sent to you each week with a list of those in need of your prayers. A phone chain notifies you of immediate needs. If there is an immediate need of prayer, please call the church office. In the event the office is closed, Gail Marquardt (570-554-1075 or 570-933-1737) should be called to begin the prayer chain. Please call the church office for more information or to become a Prayer Chain Participant.

Praying Through the Directory

Each month we will be listing three of our church faith families. We ask that you take the time and uplift them in prayer for their needs and spiritual journey.

This month we pray for:

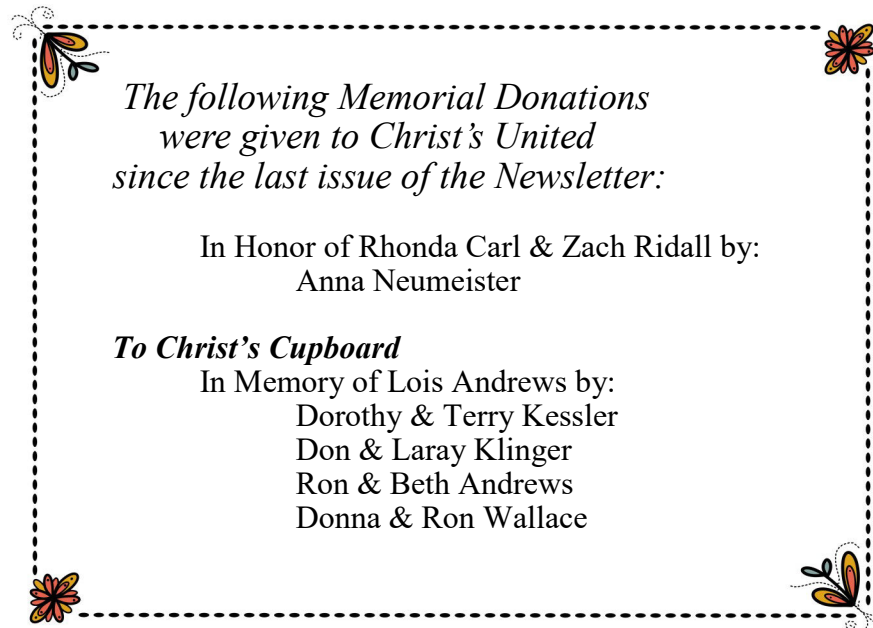

The Boyer Family - Louise

The Rickert Family - Linda

The Wolfgang Family - Dustin & Madelyn

Young at heart

I like to walk with Grandpa and Grandma,
Their steps are short like mine.
They don’t say, “Now hurry up.”
They always take their time.

I like to walk with Grandpa and Grandma,
Their eyes see things like mine do ...
Wee pebbles bright, a funny cloud,
Half-hidden drops of dew.

Most people have to hurry,
They do not stop and see.
I’m glad that God made Grandpa and Grandma
Unrushed and young like me.

Also, if you have gladiolas, calla lily bulbs, seeds or other items to share - Bring them also.

All are welcome to take what is on the table to plant at home in your garden for beautiful blooms next year!

Many thanks to everyone who works behind the scenes to make all our events and functions possible here at CULC: As little as changing a light bulb, but as much as cleaning up the kitchen, setting up for / cleaning up after dinners, preparations for food pantry distribution, prepping the pavilion for picnics, etc...

These events wouldn't be possible if folks didn't put in the hours of "getting ready" before each one. Many thanks to you all!!
