Pastor Kim's Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It's time to start heading into the attic and the basement, sort through the boxes and pull out long lines of sparkly lights to stretch across our houses. It's time to haul the furniture around in the living room to make way for the pine needles and water jugs, and hope that the dog and the cat stay out of the tree this year. It's time to dust and clean, change the sheets in the guest room, call Aunt Myrtle, and bake cookies. It's time to change the radio station in the car, the house, the store, the iPod, the bathroom. It's time to announce that the closet is off limits, make secret trips to town, buy scotch tape buy the case, and have colored paper roll sword battles.

It's time to get ready for Christmas.

And every year about this time we say: never again. Oh, it's a lot of change in our regular routine. But the anticipation is worth it.

As we grow closer to the day, our homes not only look different,
they feel different.

As we grow closer to the day, people we don't know are smiling at us and wishing us well.

As we grow closer to the day,
the gift boxes in the colored paper add to the anticipation,
the excitement,
Filling the air with questions and giggles,
and then the moment comes...

shouts and screams and laughter and tumbles and rips and pops and smiles and hugs and kisses

- continued on page 4

as the bubble of anticipation explodes and the joy rains down on us, wrapping paper mountains surround us with rivers of ribbons flowing by our feet,
till we fall exhausted on the sofa with our new sweater over us,
the children playing with a toy near us,
and contentment filling us.

It is a scene from a Norman Rockwell painting. It is only later, when the excitement has waned and the relatives have gone home and the clean up has begun that we begin throwing the trappings of our celebration in the trash. But – wait – look closely - there is more:

Beneath the paper and the boxes, under the ribbon and the bows,
Beneath the string of lights hanging,
There is another box.
So plain, it had been forgotten.

It doesn't have any colored paper.
It doesn't have any stripped ribbon.
It doesn't have any fancy bows.
It is not held together with rolls of tape.
It doesn't even have a name card.

Crudely lettered on the top it simply says:
For You.

This Christmas open the best gift you have ever been given: the Saviour, Jesus Christ. He doesn't come with shiny paper or stripped ribbons or fancy bows. He comes simply in love. In Him, is life that lasts longer than energizer bunny, even longer than death. In Him, the feelings of Christmas are not only for December 25th, but every day: for Jesus doesn't only change the season, He changes the world.

This year,
Celebrate the gift of Christmas. Celebrate Jesus, the Christ.

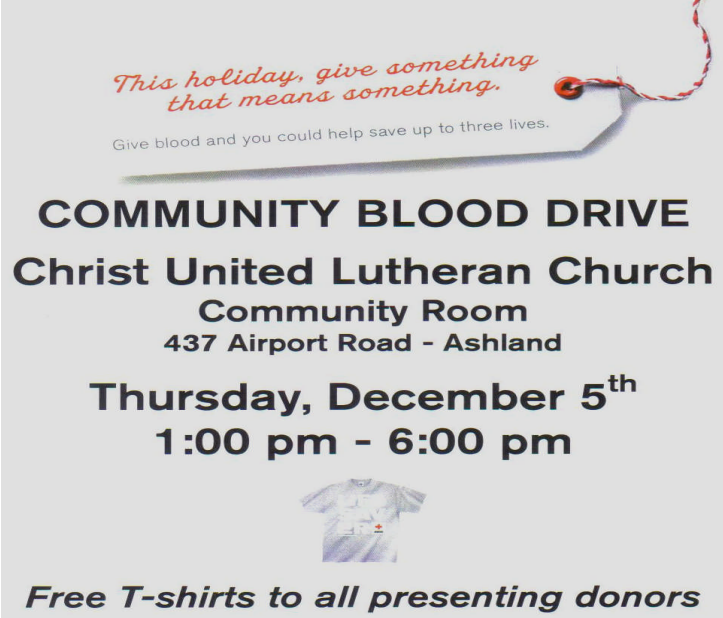

Peace,
Pastor Kim

Church Council Highlights from November:

- Evangelism is working on incorporating more of our ministries onto the web site.
- Personnel asked to place an add in the Pottsville & Shenandoah newspapers for a Choir Director.
- The water testing was good.
- Volunteers are needed to help paint the library.
- Six flood buckets were assembled, and then picked up by Bethesda Mission.
- The social ministry team is assembling and donating food baskets to needy families for Thanksgiving and Christmas.
- Endowment Fund scholarships will be awarded on December 1.
- The Endowment Fund Committee will be cashing out the Thrivent Insurance Policy that they hold and placing the money into a Thrivent Mutual Fund.
- The new council youth representative will be Steven Wolfgang.
- The annual budget meeting was held on November 10. The budget was passed.

This holiday, give something that means something.

Give blood and you could help save up to three lives.

The joys of Christmas often only compound the grief of those who have lost a loved one. Decorations, happy music, and family gatherings emphasize the one who is missing: the chair that death has left empty. Join and be filled in this service of comfort for those in mourning, and find the promise of peace in this “Blue Christmas”.

Christmas Greetings:

As we gather to celebrate the gift of God this Christmas, the Pastor and Staff thank you, the people of Christ's United Lutheran Church, for the opportunity to serve our Saviour with you. May the love of God that is Jesus Christ come not only to the manger, but to our hearts and through our lives; and may the fullness of God's gifts, be yours.

Merry Christmas –

The Pastor and Staff of Christ's United

Called & Committed to Serve

Included in last months Newsletter was a NEW sheet for 2014 to identify which ministries at Christ's United you would like to be involved with. If you filled out a Time & Talent sheet last year, PLEASE fill this one out again for 2014. We take the tally from the current list as to which ministries and committees you wish to participate in. This information will also help us to set up our new Servant Keeper church management software program. All information is kept confidential. Please fill out and return the Membership Information section, so that we have all current information for you and your family. Thank You!

Pounds for a Purpose

1 Corinthians 6:19 "Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own?"

The idea is simple: we take pounds from the temple of our body to care for it, and place pounds in the temple of God to care for others. We do this not through any specific exercise or diet, but through a common commitment to Jesus Christ. We gather together to pray for each other, to hear God's instruction on caring for this temple He has given us, and to celebrate the ability to share our blessing with those in need. Please plan to come together on Monday, December 9 at 6:00 p.m. A sign-up to receive updates is on the bulletin board.

G R O W I N G in God's Word

“Are you tired of the how consumerism has stolen the soul of Christmas? This year, take a stand! Join the ground swell of Christ-followers who are choosing to make Christmas what it should be, a joyous celebration of Jesus' birth that enriches our hearts and the world around us”. The Advent Conspiracy is happening! This study carries us through the season of Advent and prepares us for the celebration of Christmas, by focusing on four steps:

Worship Fully – because Christmas begins and ends with Jesus!

Spend Less – and free your resources for things that truly matter.

Give More – of your presence: Your hands, your words, your time, your heart.

Love All – the poor, the forgotten, the marginalized, the sick, in ways that make a difference.

Join the conspiracy – Wednesday evenings in December.

Monday, December 2
9:00 a.m.

All are welcome to come and help decorate the church for the Advent & Christmas seasons.

Attention ALL Senior Youth: Saturday, December 14

Come join the fun at our annual Christmas party!
The fun starts at 3:00 p.m. with craft time, and cookie making. At 5:00 we will attend service. After that we will have dinner, play games, and finish our crafts.

All Senior Youth are invited to come to the Party!!!!

Junior Youth Update!

Buffy Day with the Junior Youth was a huge success, Jeanmarie & Angie entertained 9 kids with crafts and fun. All 9 kids were sooo excited to learn about dogs and watch Buffy do her tricks. They even got to feed her, pet her, give her High Fives and have her sit on their laps. After Buffy left, the kids enjoyed snacks (donated by Tammy Leshner) and juices provided. Then with the help of Jeanmarie & the adults present, they got to paint and decorate wooden Christmas ornaments. The children all brought donations for pets that were donated to the Hillside SPCA. WOW...what a talented & creative group!

Thank you to all the trunkers and treaters for making our 2nd annual Trunk or Treat a huge success. We had approximately 22 trunkers and 80 treaters!!!!

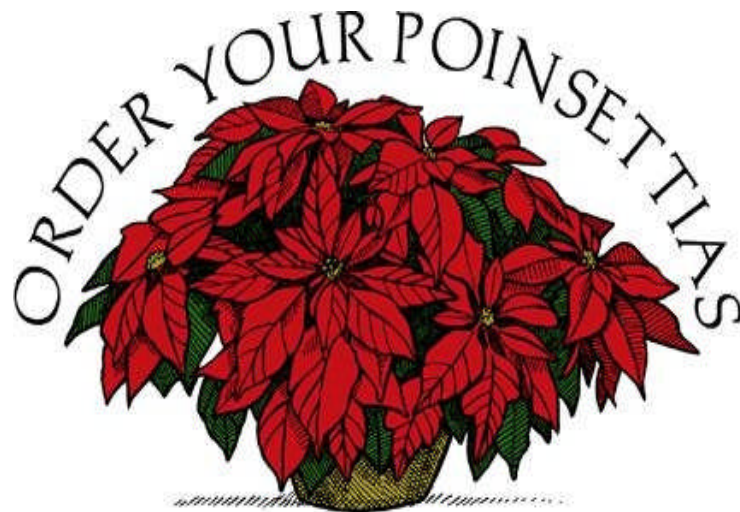

The night was chilly and windy but it was still a fun night for all!!!

Relay for Life Fundraiser

You may have noticed the decorated tables in the social hall. On some of those tables there are painted mason jar floral arrangements. The senior youth will be making and selling these arrangements to help fight cancer for next years Relay for Life. The jars will be $5 and most will be decorated in a Christmas style! The sale starts December 14th and they will be available in the narthex until Christmas.

It's time to order Christmas Poinsettias!

The poinsettias are available in marble, pink, white, or red.

Available in a 6" pot (5-7 blooms) for $11.00 or,
an 8" pot (12-15 blooms) for $22.50.

Also available, 24" fresh green wreath decorated with pinecones and a bow for $12.00, pine roping for $2.00 a yard and cedar roping for $1.30 a foot.

Please sign up on the bulletin board or call the church office.

Make checks payable to Jane Pennypacker.

The deadline to order is December 8th.

We Offer our Prayers to...

Members of Christ's United:

SPECIAL OFFERING

Good Samaritan Fund Offering December 28 & 29

This fund is used by the Social Ministry Team throughout the year. We use funds to purchase food for the Easter, Thanksgiving, & Christmas baskets that we assemble and give to needy families in the congregation. It is also used if someone needs assistance in an emergency.

Christmas Tree of Sharing

Beginning

Sunday, December 1

Americans spend over $300 billion on Christmas shopping each year.

That is a lot of stocking stuffers, fruitcake, and Christmas sweaters! What if a part of this spending was redirected to fight hunger and poverty? That ornament for a teacher could be changed into a mosquito net for a family in Africa, or that gift for your spouse they will not use could be changed into farming tools to equip a family to be self sufficient.

You could actually give a gift that changes lives!!!

Tags are available in the Narthex for the food pantry, SWiC, local children, and the ELCA. There are a variety of items from which to choose.

When you have chosen your gift, decorate the tree with your “ornament” and see our progress as the tree becomes decorated!

All gifts for distribution must be returned to the church by December 15.

We also have many items on our Lutheran World Relief table that could be used as Christmas gifts: chocolate, coffee, tea, and many other items.

Do your shopping at Christ’s United this year. It will save time and make a difference in another persons life!

Please Remember our Shut-ins during the Christmas Season with visits, cards, greetings, and prayers.

WELCA News

Ladies – start your engines! The group is heading up to Bloomsburg to the Olive Garden, where they will share in endless bowls of salad and tables of fun! Our topic of sharing is “the greatest Christmas gift you ever received”. Gather in the church parking lot at 3:30 on Sunday, December 1 to carpool!

Please assist the church in making an accurate report of all active, communing and contributing members of Christ's United.

As we approach the end of our calendar year, it is important that everyone take a moment to complete one communion card and one offering envelope with your name and address. Either one or both can be found in the pew racks at any of our upcoming services. Thank you for assisting the record keepers as we begin the church year with the Holy seasons of Advent and Christmas.

New offering envelopes for 2014 will be available mid December.

WHO ARE

These People???

Each month we have a different picture from long ago. See if you can guess who some or all of the people in the picture are. The answers will be in next months "Life Together" Newsletter.

The answers for Novembers issue are: Not in order from the picture, Melissa Bingaman, Rhonda Bingaman, William Coward III, Cynthia Harter, James Johnson, Kimberly Liem, Lisa Lindenmuth, Gregory Long, Michelle Neumeister, Rachel Reiner, Brad Rickert, Robin Rutko, Melanie Schneider, Elizabeth Snyder, Bernice Sweinhart, Cathy Sweinhart, Glenn Weist, Rev. If you have any old pictures from Christ's United or any of the chapels that formed Christ's United, please bring them into the office. Please also provide the peoples names that are in the pictures. Your picture will be returned to you. Thank you.

Congregational Christmas Dinner and Jesus' Birthday Celebration

December 15th at 11:00 am

MENU

Ham Turkey
Filling Sweet Potatoes Hot Vegetables
Salads Cranberries
Desserts

Sign up on the bulletin board to attend and, if you wish, bring a covered dish for the menu.

A birthday celebration for Jesus will include music, games, and a visit from “a jolly man in a red suit” following the meal.

Happy Birthday, Jesus!

Media Ministry

Is expanding. Led by the videos offered during the Committed to Christ program, we are seeking a video from each ministry team that explains what they do and why. These informational and invitational videos will be accessible through our website, www.christsunited.org. We are also in need of additional media ministers to operate the computer and sound system during worship services. If you have an eye for pictures and a geek-ish heart, this is the ministry for you! Please contact Pastor Kim for more information.

The Word on Winter

Unpredictable weather can play havoc with our Church Calendar, as the early darkness and icy roads affect our gatherings. Please remember to check for updates on our Facebook page, channels WNEP or WBRE, and T-102 radio for delays and cancellations. Although our Saturday service may be cancelled to allow for the cleaning of the parking lot, Sunday services will not be cancelled but, may be delayed to allow for road de-icing.

Advent Workshop

Saturday, December 7
2:00-4:00 p.m.

Prepare the Way!

Often lost in the early onset of Christmas music and holiday shopping sales, Advent is a season of preparation as we actively await the birth of our Savior, Jesus the Christ. The Advent workshop is an activity for families (of all shapes and sizes) to make something that will help you celebrate the season of Advent at home. We will also be celebrating some of the ancient traditions of Christmas. Our project will be making a Gingerbread Nativity scene! The Advent workshop is a wonderful event for family members of all ages. Please sign up on the bulletin board to insure enough supplies for all who attend.

A Christmas table prayer:

Dear Lord, this day, we thank you for the gift of your presence among us, for Jesus was born in Bethlehem and also in our hearts. You came to us to bring us the gifts of forgiveness, love, and eternal life. Help us to celebrate your gifts not only this day, but every day. We remember those who are in need, whether it be because of illness, grief, poverty, or violence. May we share the blessings that you have given us so that all may know the fullness of your love. In Jesus name, Amen.
