Pastor Kim's Message

Brothers and Sisters,

We're in the height of the Christmas shopping push as I write this New Year article, and my email is dinging with "last chance" advertisements, and among them, twice a week, is an ad for new a new suitcase.

New suitcase? As a present?

Sure, I used to travel a lot. Sure, I've had to replace my suitcase a few times. Sure, it is worn so much that I no longer refer to it as "my suitcase" but instead it has become just a bag. But a new suitcase? Who wants that?

Actually, everyone. That's what the new year is about, isn't it?

Emptying out the old and starting fresh. A chance for a new beginning.

A new start is something everyone could use. We start our life journey with a shiny new suitcase that every experience gets shoved into. Every pain, every mistake, every sorrow, jammed in with joys and celebrations, squeezing them down into the corners while leaving a lot of stinky sadness on top. The bag becomes our reputation, dragged along with us into every new adventure, a reminder of our past that no matter where we go or what we do cannot be escaped.

Oh, we may try to dress up our old bag with stickers and tags like "tradition" and "habit" but it does not change the truth: our bag is a weight that limits our future, weighing us down with a past we can not change.

So now at the end of the year we are dragging our bag with us, wanting – needing – a chance to let it behind and start new. We look to balloons dropping and champagne toasting and loud shouts of Happy New Year, but the truth – our old bag – remains. Oh sure, it may have a shiny new cover, but it is the same old junk we’ve been carrying ever other year, just more of it. It may be a new year, but it isn’t a new start.

That’s because we’re looking at the wrong holiday. The new year begins with the date: the new start begins with the deed.

The deed performed by God in a lowly stable just a few days ago. The deed by which a child was born, who is called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. The deed by which a Saviour was given to us, God among us, Jesus the Christ.

The gift of Christmas is not a new suitcase in which our old bag is shoved into, where our pain can be hidden like a trick at a circus side show. Jesus is not a magician: He is a saviour. Jesus does not hide our pain, He takes it from us. The cross upon which Jesus died was on a hill: the hill of our old bags.

The gift of Christmas is the gift of a new start. Everything old has passed away and all has become new. No longer are we weighed down by our past. No longer do we carry around our pains. No longer do we even need a suitcase. Because Jesus makes us free.

This new year, play with your present. Celebrate the freedom you have in Jesus Christ. Experience the joy of not having to drag – or be dragged by - that old bag any more. Live in the love of Jesus Christ, so that you can truly love to live. And have not only a happy new year, but have a happy new life.

Peace,

Pastor Kim

Church Council Highlights from December:

- Jim Chappell obtained a garage door for the pavilion so that we can close off the section where we serve the food so that nothing disappears or gets damaged with the weather. Jim is still looking for a 36" outside door for the pavilion, possibly donated by Lowe's or Home Depot.
- WELCA will make a mortgage payment of $1,388.
- Deidre Dengler, our new Youth representative, gave her report and thanked everyone for letting her be part of Council.
- Kitchen Manual: Beth shared with Council the Kitchen Manual which she created based on Jim Chappell's meeting with the Kitchen Crew on November 21st. The manual has a table of contents with instructions regarding the operation of all the kitchen appliances and will be kept in the kitchen for reference.

Give Electronically

Enjoy the Convenience of Electronic Giving

As Christ's United prepares for a new year, it is important to know what support we can depend on from our congregation members. By knowing what you are willing to commit financially, we are able to better plan for the future. Please consider setting up a recurring giving plan. Automating your financial commitments means your contributions will be received on a steady, uninterrupted basis.

To set up a recurring giving schedule, visit us online at www.christsunited.org, locate the Online Giving button and set up your recurring giving schedule. The first time you give, you will select a password that will enable you to log in at any time and make changes to your giving or view your complete online giving history. Or if it's easier, just scan this QR code to get started.

Remember:

We recycle many things here at Christ's United. Please bring your items in and help keep them out of area landfills.

Items Collected:

Metal tabs from cans

These are sent to a Service Dog training facility in Harrisburg. The money raised is used to help train the puppies. Collection bins are located in the kitchen, social hall, and hallway.

Aluminum cans

These are processed by the youth of the congregation and money raised goes to the youth so they can do special projects and trips throughout the year. Collection bins are located behind the church.

Old Cell Phones

We recycle any kind of old cell phone. A collection box is located on the bottom of the table in the hallway. Please remember to wipe any personal information off of your device before bringing it in. We do not accept chargers or cords.

Any kind of Ink or Toner cartridge

Many of us use a printer at home with our computer—we recycle all types of cartridges. They are sent to a recycling facility and we in turn get money back. Collection bins are located in the library.

WELCA News

Sunday, January 3

Mineshaft Restaurant, Ashland

No need to ride too far to experience the warmth of friendship at this new year gathering. Sign up on the bulletin board to attend.

As disciples of the Lord Jesus we are called to struggle against everything that leads us away from love of God and neighbor. Repentance, fasting, prayer, and works of love—the discipline of Lent—help us to wage our spiritual warfare. I invite you, therefore, to commit yourselves to this struggle and confess your sins, asking our Father for strength to persevere in your Lenten discipline.

Exhortation for Ash Wednesday, Lutheran Book of Worship

During Lent it is an act of devotion that we journey with Christ to the cross. We do this by following the discipline of Lent. It is not an easy journey, but it is a journey of love. To help we journey together: using the daily devotions written by our family of faith at Christ's United. Please choose a text listed on the bulletin board. Read it, and listen to God speak, and then share your insight: through words or pictures, help us hear God speak too. The devotionals will be available the weekend before Ash Wednesday.

WHO ARE

These People???

Each month we like to have a different picture from long ago. See if you can guess who some or all of the people in the picture are. The answers will be in next months "Life Together" Newsletter.

We are in need of more photographs. If you have any to share, please bring them into the church office for Erik to scan into the computer.

If you have any old pictures from Christ's United or any of the chapels that formed Christ's United, please provide pictures to the church office to be included in future "Life Together" Newsletters. Also provide the names of those that are pictured. I am also looking for pictures of the exterior of the Chapels: St. John's, St. Paul's, St. Peter's and Zions. Thank you!

Christ's United is expanding our media ministry. If you are able to work a computer or a camera, or have music you think would benefit the worship service, please talk to Pastor Kim. Our goal is to expand the use of social media for Evangelism, especially our You Tube Channel! If you have not yet visited the Christ's United Facebook page, and joined our Facebook Group, check it out!

Collection of the Palms

Once we waved them with shouts of triumph in celebration of our Lord and King. Many then took their palms home - placing them on pictures, mantles, or the sun visor of their cars - any where that would remind them of that day. The palms were a sign of celebration: but now they are a sign of our mortality. Please bring your palms to Christ's United the last two weeks of January and place them in the bin in the gathering area. The palms will be burned, and the ashes used to anoint our heads on Ash Wednesday.

The ministry staff of Christ's United will be on a Retreat Friday, January 8 beginning at 8:30 a.m.

2016 Sponsorships

The 2016 sponsorship sign up sheets are posted on the bulletin board.

Payments for Altar flowers should be made to Jane Pennypacker. All other payments should be made out to the church and given to Erik Tice in the church office.

Starting Anew

The new year is marked by promises to start anew, especially regarding eating habits and exercise. But what about faith? How can we start anew in faith by making a commitment to travel through this year with Jesus Christ, no longer just labeled a Christian but living as a Christian?

“Christian?” will explore faith in a new and challenging way, teaching us what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ. This five week program will explore faith in all the facets of our lives. Make a new promise this new year: Tuesdays @ 7:00 p.m..
