Pastor Kim's Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

It's that time again, time when family and friends gather for picnics and pools, cookouts in a cool summer breeze, while folks we've known our whole lives sit in lawn chairs until long after the sun has set.

No matter how your family gatherings work, all of them include the same thing:

telling stories that are re-told every time you get together, stories that were told when our parents were merely young children,
and then as the years passed, told over and over to us,
only for us to repeat the cycle.

We learned that those old stories are our stories, stories that carry us through time and space, that changed our past and form our future. Through those stories we came to know our family, learning about each member in a way that caused us to remember. We learned about relationships and characteristics, travel and illnesses, education and adventure. We learned where we came from, who we came from, and from that,

We learned who we are...

Brothers and Sisters, that is what the church is about: we are people of the story. A story that was told to our family members a long time ago, a story about crazy people like Peter who tried to walk on water and John who had crazy hair and ate bugs and Abraham who was always lost even when he was on the right road, and Ruth who saved an entire nation and God,

- continued on page 4

Who formed us all with loving hands,
Walked with us holding and guiding us,
And never, never leaves us alone.

Stories. God's stories. Our stories. Stories that tell us who we are and who we will be, stories that our parents were told and then told to us, only for us to repeat the cycle.

This Summer our focus is, like every other family, telling those old stories. A Summer reading challenge gives our children the opportunity to hear the story of God's never ending love in the adventures of Bible relatives, like weird Peter or crazy John. Vacation Bible School invites us to enter the story as we experience God all around us. Adult Confirmation gives us the story in history, helping us to "finally get it" as we see how the story guides our actions. Worship calls us to hear and see the story, a time to enter in and claim it as our own. And the picnics and trips are times for us to gather around in lawn chairs or pews, when the sun is breaking the sky or when dusk is nigh, and join in the story:

to come and hear, then go and tell.

Peace,
Pastor Kim

Youth Group News

Last month we celebrated our wonderful mothers, and this month was our fathers' turn. The junior and senior youth celebrated their favorite males with a prayer, food, piñata, tie dying shirts, and a game of kick ball. We had a great time and were blessed by the talents of Jeanmarie in the kitchen. The youth were spun around, got dizzy, and took swings at a flower piñata full of candy. After being hit a few times the piñata finally gave way to a final blow from Zach. We all, youth and adults alike, created our own tie dye shirts. It is a good thing that tie dying shirts is almost a fool-proof craft (none of us knew what we were doing). Everyone voted on a logo/motto for the youth, which will be added to the youth tie dye shirts. We ended our festivities with a game of kick ball that pinned the youth against the adults. We played three innings and in the end the youth pulled out the win of 12-10. Thank you to all the youth and their male guests for making this such a wonderful event!

The youth group would also like to send out a big Thank you to Terry Ambrose, Peggy Dziczek and Penny Lindenmuth for their generous donations to our picnic.

We are a few weeks into the summer reading challenge and the feed back from parents is wonderful. Thank you for participating and keep up the good work!!!

Keep an eye on the bulletin board, announcements and newsletter for more events to come!!!

WELCA News

Christ's United will contribute 12 knotted quilts to the 500,000 QUILTS FOR LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF (LWR) CHALLENGE. These quilts were blessed and given to the Ingathering location for delivery to a New Windsor, MD warehouse. LWR has been distributing quilts around the world for many years. The quilts are used as beds and/or covers, shawls, baby carriers, sunshades, and ground cover for market goods.

Thank you to all who donated materials and time to create the quilts. We will take a break until the fall but we can use more supplies. Drop off materials in August in the social hall.

New or used, but clean materials needed for the project are:

Bed sheets, blankets, mattress pads, pillow cases, quilts (not knitted or crocheted), fabric yards or pieces (cottons, corduroy, fleece), or draperies (no fiberglass content).

Also, crocheting thread for knotting & Quilt batting.

Please look around your homes or second hand shops for any of these materials and place them in the box in the social hall next to the walk-in closet. Assembly of quilts will begin again in September. If you wish to work on 60" x 80" quilt tops at home, refer to lwr.org/kits or, contact Donna Wallace. Also, check out LWR Quilters on Facebook to see what is happening around the country and world.

Confirmation? For Adults?

Why should the kids have all the fun – join in the discussion as we experience confirmation a whole lot different from when you were a kid! We'll journey through the creation of the cosmos to the koinonia of Christ, singing the Sanctus with the hosts of heaven with stops for manna breaks along the way! This quickie course will be a summary of the materials covered in a typical confirmation program, with emphasis on Biblical story and worship.

FOOD!

Now that we have your attention – food is a central part of church life, just like food was a central part of Christ's ministry. As we gather around the table we share as a family all the gifts of God that feed us – in our tummies and in our souls.

Two groups that formed through our most recent leadership training event, are planning new ways to feed us – in the tummy and the soul – through ministry.

The first is a Community-Chili-Contest-Concert and the other is a Marriage Resource program. Please check the sign up boards in the center of the church to sign up and to learn more!
