Pastor Kim's Message

Brothers and Sisters,

Slow down, you move too fast;

You've got to make the morning last...

“Feeling Groovy”, Simon and Garfunkel

If you've called me lately, there is a chance that you reached my voicemail: I have been trying hard to disconnect. If I go out for dinner, the phone stays in the car. If the day is jam packed with activities, I try to just read at night. If the weekend is busy, Friday mornings are spent with the dogs.

It's not idealistic. It's necessary.

I have a tendency to get into too much, to make too many commitments, too many projects, too many directions. Life becomes like a tennis ball in the middle of a championship match, constantly pounded in one direction and then the reverse, until it just bounces out of bounds...

Things get done too quickly to be done well or enjoyed. Friends get rushed out instead of welcomed in. Children grow too fast around me, and I think of memories missed. There just doesn't seem to be time for everything anymore. An emptiness begins to grow within me, almost like I am filling up with that which was lost in the busyness of daily life. Did you ever feel that way?

And now we enter the September rush. The time when school begins again, the sports seasons change, the lawn furniture gets packed up, the pool gets closed, and we get ready to hunker in for winter while driving to events with a schedule that makes heads spin. At no time in our lives is it more important to disconnect from the busyness, and re-connect with the relationship that gives all others meaning.

Be still, and know that I am God!

Psalm 46

God calls us to time away from the busyness in order to strengthen our relationships: with Him, that we may be strengthened in our relationships with each other. It is a Sabbath, a time apart.

In the crazy schedules we now try to keep, we have lost that connection: a connection with the One who formed us, who loves us, who gives strength to our relationships and wisdom to our actions. That one connection we need to make.

Slow down this September. Disconnect from the busyness. And re-connect with God.

Peace,
Pastor Kim

Thank You to the numerous volunteers that came out to help make Jungle Safari VBS a huge success. We are very grateful for Hadesty's Ace Hardware in Pottsville who graciously donated the supplies for the kids' rain chime craft. The congregation really came together to help our young ones to learn more about God our creator, provider, protector, savior, and king. The Jungle Safari came to an end with a big bang thanks to the efforts of Steven Wolfgang. The kids and kids-alike were able to learn about different animals with a petting zoo. A second big Thank You goes out to the children who came out for VBS. Without them, we could rarely have the amount of fun VBS week always turns out to be.

The Journey!

“Jesus loves the little children...” and the big children! Come and experience the love of Jesus as we begin a new Journey! Every one is invited as we begin the waters of Baptism and journey through life with Jesus, learning of His constant love for us through the stories of the Bible. The Journey takes off each week at 10:45 Sunday mornings with song and prayer – won’t you Journey with Jesus this year? – see you at Rally Day on Sunday, September 14!

WELCOME!

Have you ever entered a crowd of people looking for someone you know? There is a nervousness that sets in, then you see them: there is a smile, a wave, and a huge feeling of comfort. You've felt that way – now how about giving that same feeling of welcome to someone else? This ministry of welcome is looking for new members! How about you?

Saturday, September 6 will be a workshop for anyone and everyone who has ever wondered, questioned, been prompted or is serving as an usher, greeter, or communion assistant. Held from 9-11 A.M. we will talk about the blessings and responsibilities of serving as an usher, greeter, or communion assistant and taking a dry run through the actual steps.

SOCIAL MINISTRY

We will be collecting the following items for September:

Please place your donations in the shopping cart. Thank You!

Harvest Home

“And give us this day our daily bread...”

Every thing that we have – our homes, family, clothing, and food – are gifts from God. We celebrate and give thanks for the blessing of food by sharing what we have with those who do not have enough. The number of families in our area who are without enough food has steadily increased, and even the assistance we have is often not enough to feed the entire family. For this reason Christ’s United is starting Christ’s Cupboard, a supplemental food pantry for larger families and those who do not have access to a local food pantry. As this is a new ministry, we are asking our congregation and friends to “Pack the Pantry” this Harvest Home. Gifts of boxed or canned food items will help every family in our area to have their “daily bread”.

These People???

Each month we have a different picture from long ago. See if you can guess who some or all of the people in the picture are. The answers will be in next months "Life Together" Newsletter.

If you have any old pictures from Christ's United, or any of the chapels that formed Christ's United, please bring them into the office. Please also provide the peoples names that are in the pictures. I am also looking for a picture of each of the Chapels: St. John's, St. Paul's, St. Peter's and Zions. Thanks!

Ministry of the Month

Property Committee

First of all thanks to everyone for the help given to maintain our church on the project workday! The property committee in simple terms endeavors to keep a roof over our heads and grass under our feet. In many churches this committee decides who will do the maintenance and upgrades then write a check to cover the costs. At Christ's

United the property committee is defiantly hands due to need and a strong respect for the congregation's giving. Working to complete our various projects is always done with fellowship and humor. And the satisfaction of supporting the church. Anyone who could share their gifts and time would be appreciated. We invite you to share our mission for your church!

“Blessed are the feet that bring the Good News!” We tend to gloss over this blessing with a chuckle as we focus on numbers of people in the seats. But counting numbers is not what we are here for: we are here to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to those around us, and God will bless us in that ministry! But how???

Join in the discussion on

Saturday, September 20

for the Evangelism Workshop at Christ’s United and find out! Speakers from around Pennsylvania will gather to share insights on outreach using Bible Study, Worship, Mission Trips, Social Ministry, Youth, Christian Education, Social Media, and more!

Please call the Church office to register – there is no fee, only faith is required – and lunch is included!

I want to thank everyone for their cards, prayers, gifts and visits when I had my tonsils, adenoids and two extra teeth out.

Love, Jacob Tice
